- B4. (1) How little I think about it!
(2) Hadn't she read a book of mine?
- B5. Model Answer : If I were in the place of the narrator, I would have bluntly told the lady that I was a struggling writer and could not afford to give her a luncheon at Foyot's. I would have suggested some cheaper restaurant that I could afford. I would not try to show off, or spend more than I can afford, just to impress someone.

Q. 3. (A)

- A1. (a) (iv) to remind man about his Creator in his exhaustion.
(v) God pulled man towards Him by making him restless and weary.
(b) (ii) a gift to mankind
(iv) an image by which God compels people to become devout
- A2. Model Answer : 'Rest' makes us feel satisfied and contented. When we have 'rest', we do not desire anything more. We might even stop remembering God, our Creator, or seeking His blessings. Hence, God withheld the gift of 'Rest' from man.
- A3. 'Let him be rich and weary' is an example of Paradox from the poem. It is a statement that is self-contradictory, as a person cannot be rich and weary at the same time.

Q. 3. (B) Appreciation :

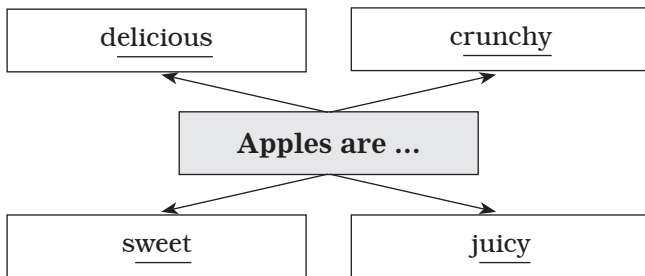

The poem 'Where the mind is without fear' is by Rabindranath Tagore.

The poem is written in free verse without any rhyme scheme or consistent metre. There are many figures of speech e.g. Repetition, Metaphor, Alliteration, etc. An important figure of speech is Personification – 'Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection'. Here, we can actually visualize 'tireless striving' stretching its arms to reach its goal.

The poem is a prayer to God. Tagore addresses God as 'my Father' and asks Him to awaken his country into a heaven of freedom, where there is total freedom of good thoughts, good words and good actions. He wishes for a country where people would be free from fear, where knowledge would be free to all individuals and people from all castes and religions would be united.

Q. 4. (A)

A1.

A2.

Medicinal properties of the apple fruit :

- (i) An apple is packed with rich phyto-nutrients indispensable for optimal health.
- (ii) The antioxidants in the apple have a lot of health-promoting and disease-preventing properties.

A3. (i) I like to have some dessert after every meal.

(ii) The actress used a sunscreen that allowed optimal amount of sunlight into her skin.

A4. (i) Not many fruits are as popular as the apple.

(ii) An apple a day keeps the doctor away, doesn't it?

A5. Model Answer : Yes, I like apples. I like them because they are sweet and juicy, and I know that they are good for health. They are also ideal when I feel very hungry while studying. A single apple keeps me full for a long time, and I do not feel the urge to eat junk food. I often carry apples to college to eat during the break.

Q. 4. (B) Summary :

'An apple a day keeps the doctor away'

Apples, delicious and juicy, are one of the most popular fruits. They are full of rich phyto-nutrients and antioxidants, which promote health and prevent diseases. Apples belong to the Rosaceae family. The apple tree originated in Kazakhstan, but is now being cultivated in many parts of the world. The apple fruit is oval in shape. The outer skin has different colours and the colour and taste of the pulp too varies. The seeds of the apple are bitter and inedible. Apples are either eaten as table fruits or as dessert. They can be used for cooking and baking too.

About Self-assessment of Writing Skills Questions...

While answering the writing skills questions, students are expected to write their thoughts in their own words/language. Such answers are open-ended ones. Students may attempt these questions on their own. Students may however study the answers given in the solution to the March 2022 Board's Activity Sheet and consider the marking scheme given along with them. They can try to self-assess their own answers. They can also get the guidance from their teacher, if necessary.
